Chief Counsel, AMCLC-APG, Esparraguera joins Pentagon staff

Aberdeen Proving Ground (AMCLC-APG), Maria Esparraguera proved these wise words to be profoundly true. From meeting difficult challenges head on, to encouraging others to draw on their strengths, she executed her duties with the aplomb of a professional. A prominent figure throughout the CECOM community since early 2010, Esparraguera challenges herself yet again as she assumes her new role as Director of Civilian Personnel, Labor and Employment Law, at the Pentagon.

By Mary B. Grimes, CECOM Public Affairs

Someone once said, "Nothing liberates our greatness like the desire to help, the desire to serve." As Chief Counsel, Army Materiel Command Legal Center-

Expressing how her experiences with CECOM have added to her professional and personal growth and development, Esparraguera said, "In my 30-odd years with CECOM, I've met some of the best people I've ever known, and I've learned so much from them, both technically and personally. I've witnessed great compassion and courage. My closest friends are relationships developed from work; they are the people who have kept me strong and have supported me through my life."
