SHARP Resource Center opens at Aberdeen Proving Ground

By CECOM Public Affairs

ABERDEEN PROVING GROUND, Maryland (Feb. 5, 2015) -- The Aberdeen Proving Ground (APG) Sexual Harassment and Assault Response Program (SHARP) Resource Center located on the second floor of the Janet M. Barr Soldier Center- opened its doors on Jan. 2, 2015. The resource center, available to both military and civilians, is designed to handle restricted and unrestricted cases of sexual assault and sexual harassment. Under the guidance of Maj. Gen. Bruce T. Crawford, APG Senior Commander and Commanding General of Communications-Electronics Command (CECOM), and led by the Installation's SHARP Program Manager Tracy Marshall, the resource center is a new asset to be utilized in the fight against sexual assault and harassment. "The idea, like other resource centers, is to create a 'one-stop-shop' where APG military and civilian community members can go for consolidated SHARP support and treatment," said Marshall.

The center on APG is supported by staff including: a Judge Advocate General (JAG) officer, a Criminal Investigations Command (CID) agent, a medical expert, a Sexual Assault Response Coordinator (SARC), a victim advocate, and Marshall, the program manager.
